The International Plumbing Code

Tuesday, July 15, 2008

Nampa Civic Center—311 3rd St. South

9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Cost: $40

This forum will facilitate the understanding of international plumbing code, and the savings on the drainage and water distribution systems. It will also dispel the myths about this code.

Join your neighbors, fellow contractors and building professionals in exploring the fundamentals of the International Plumbing Code. You will gain a great understanding of the whys and wherefores of this great plumbing option and you will be able to understand how well this code works with the other International Building Codes. There will be code books available to purchase at a great savings to you. Come and enjoy the snacks and the great instructors provided by the International Code Council. Everyone is invited to attend. If you have any questions about this event, please contact Cache Olson at the City of Nampa (208-465-5455; olsonc@cityofnampa.us), John Desmond also at the City of Nampa (208-468-5479. desmondj@cityofnampa.us) or the IDABO/BSPSI office (208-321-9182; julikaiser@clearwire.net).
